

OPERATION IMPACT

Understanding the role that cannabis has to play both recreationally and medically is very complex. The scientific community agrees there is a lot we do not know. Strength has increased dramatically. Perception of both benefits and risks remain confusing to many.

Our goal is to help participants make fact-based decisions about personal use of marijuana. Critical thinking skills can help decipher the barrage of information available to make informed decisions.

Agenda

- Informed Choice and Critical Thinking
- Beyond Seed & Flower
- Medical vs. Recreational Marijuana
- Effects of Marijuana on the Brain and Body
- Acute & Prolonged Effects of Cannabis
- Impaired Driving: Cannabis Impact on Highway Safety
- Anxiety Management
- Risky Business: Marijuana & Mental Health
- DOT Guidelines
- Managing Withdrawal
- Treatment Options
